To appoint another person to represent you at the meeting, complete box 2

PROXY IN FAVOR OF THE PRESIDENT 1 OR PROXY IN FAVOR OF A DESIGNATED PERSON 2

Extract of French Business Corporations Act:

Article L 225-106 of the French Code of Commerce: A shareholder may give a proxy to another shareholder or to his spouse. A shareholder may also be represented by an individual or legal entity of his or her choice.

Shareholders may vote by proxy for other shareholders wishing to be represented at a shareholders' meeting, within the limits set by law or in the bylaws regarding the maximum number of voting rights which a shareholder may hold personally or on behalf of another person. Provisions providing otherwise are null and void.

With regards to proxies given by a shareholder which do not indicate the person who is entitled to vote on his behalf, the President of the Shareholders' Meeting votes in favor of the resolutions submitted or approved by the Board of Directors or management, as the case may be, and against all other resolutions.

To vote otherwise, the shareholder must give a proxy to a designated person who accepts to vote following his instructions.

VOTE BY MAIL 3

Extract of French Business Corporations Act:

Article L 225-107 of the French Code of Commerce: All shareholders may vote by mail, by means of a form the content of which is fixed by decree. Provisions of the bylaws providing otherwise are null and void. When calculating the quorum, only the forms returned to the Company before the Shareholders' Meeting within the time frame provided for by decree will be considered. The forms not giving voting instructions or instructions to abstain from voting are construed as a vote not expressed. As for amendments and new resolutions submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting, mark the box of your choice in the relevant section.
