EURO RESSOURCES S.A.
COMMENTS ON MILL INCIDENT AT ROSEBEL MINE

PARIS, France, November 21, 2005: EURO Ressources S.A. (TSX: EUR; Euronext of the Bourse de Paris: EUR) referred to the news release of Cambior Inc. issued earlier today announcing the discovery of a leak in the foundation of the thickener at Cambior's Rosebel Mine. EURO holds a royalty interest in gold production from the Rosebel Mine.

Based on the information set out in Cambior's news release and a subsequent analysts' conference call conducted by Cambior, EURO does not anticipate that the operational issues at the Rosebel mine will have a material adverse effect on EURO or on EURO's ability to meet its gold hedge and debt obligations or on its cash flow required for operational purposes.

A copy of Cambior's news release and transcript of a telephone conference call may be found at Cambior's web site, which can be viewed at www.cambior.com

EURO Ressources S.A. is a French company, presently focused on acquiring and holding mineral royalties on operating gold mines. Additionally, the Company continues to hold certain exploration and development mineral rights, principally gold, in French Guiana, which are the subject of joint venture arrangements. The Company has approximately 45 million shares outstanding.
