DELISTING OF ORDINARY SHARES FROM THE TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

Paris, France, July 17, 2009: EURO Ressources S.A. (TSX: EUR; Euronext of the Bourse de Paris: EUR) reports that it has applied to the Toronto Stock Exchange for the voluntary delisting of EURO's ordinary shares. The last day for trading of EURO's ordinary shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange will be Friday July 17, 2009.

EURO's directors determined to apply for the voluntary delisting based on the relative trading volumes of EURO's ordinary shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange compared to the NYSE Euronext Exchange following the completion of IAMGOLD Corporation's tender offer for EURO in December, 2008. During the period from January 1, 2009 to mid-July, 2009, approximately 48,000 shares were traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange compared to approximately 1,850,000 shares traded on the NYSE Euronext Exchange. EURO's ordinary shares will continue to trade on the NYSE Euronext Exchange.

EURO also intends to apply to the Canadian securities regulatory authorities for discretionary orders terminating EURO's status as a reporting issuer in Canada. Unless and until such orders are granted, EURO will continue to file continuous disclosure documents on SEDAR in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation.
